Many Matches Decided in Race for National Title.

BIG GALLERY SEES GAMES

EASY GAME FOR BROWN

Shuts Out Trinity Nine and Piles Up the Score

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.)

Providence, April 8.—Brown shut out Trinity to-day and piled up a total of nine runs against the Connecticut collegians, taking revenge for the 7 to 1 defeat administered by the visitors last season.

The batting of the home team was heavy and hits were well bunched, particularly in the eighth inning, when five of Brown's ten hits off Sayres were made. Conzelmann, on the other hand, was scattered. Snell caught a brilliant game for Brown, making a high foul fly the run after crashing into the back fence.

The score follows:
